

Winston Sponsors & Speaks at USC's 2019 IP Institute

MARCH 18, 2019 - MARCH 19, 2019

Intellectual Property Co-chair David Enzminger will speak at USC Gould School of Law's 2019 Intellectual Property Institute on March 19, 2019. This annual event brings together IP professionals for a discussion of emerging issues and best practices in copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, and other related fields.

Mr. Enzminger will present on the "Strategic Considerations in Presenting Your Damages Case at Trial," panel, consisting of a prominent federal judge, IP litigator, damages expert, jury consultant and graphics expert, will address strategies and best practices in preparing for and presenting a damages case at trial.

In addition to serving as a sponsor, Partners David Enzminger and Jennifer Golinveaux also serve on the Intellectual Property Institute's Planning Committee. Also attending on behalf of the firm are Partners David Dalke and Diana Hughes Leiden.

For more on Winston's Intellectual Property Practice, click here.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Los Angeles

San Francisco

Silicon Valley

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Trademark Litigation, Prosecution & Brand Protection

Patent Litigation

Copyright-Infringement Litigation

Related Regions

Related Professionals

---

David Enzminger

Jennifer Golinveaux

David P. Dalke, Ph.D.

Diana Leiden

