

Life on the Cutting Edge: Basil Godellas Hosts Disruptive Technology Roundtable With GC Magazine

MARCH 26, 2019

How do in-house legal departments working in disruptive industries stay ahead of the curve? How do traditional law firms ensure they are keeping in lockstep with sectors undergoing technology-inspired change? Winston & Strawn partnered with GC Magazine to host a roundtable in Silicon Valley with general counsel at the frontier of technological innovation. Partner Basil Godellas, among others, discussed how to credibly advise on legal issues when the regulation is either non-existent or likely to be made obsolete. To learn about Winston's views on infrastructure around unpredictable technologies and how distributed ledger might be the answer to preventing billion-dollar mistakes, read The Legal 500's roundtable recap.
