Bryce Cooper selected to Best LGBTQ+ Lawyers Under 40 by the LGBT Bar

MARCH 3, 2020

Bryce Cooper, Chicago litigation partner, has been selected to the Best LGBTQ+ Lawyers Under 40 by the National LGBT Bar Association. Each year, the National LGBT Bar Association recognizes LGBTQ+ legal professionals under the age of 40 who have distinguished themselves in their field and have demonstrated a profound commitment to LGBTQ+ equality.

Bryce is a member of Winston & Strawn's Health and Life Sciences industry team and has extensive experience litigating medical device and pharmaceutical products liability matters through trial and appeal. He maintains this thriving practice all while doing extensive pro bono work and community service for the LGBTQ community. Bryce is the first openly LGBTQ partner in Winston's Chicago office and is extremely involved with the firm's LGBTQ outreach efforts. Bryce also helps lead Winston's firm-wide LGBTQ affinity group, Winston Pride, and serves as the group's liaison to Winston's Pro Bono Committee, advising on significant pro bono cases relating to LGBTQ issues.
