

Resources on Race, Racism, and How to be an Anti-Racist

JULY 2, 2020

Winston & Strawn's Diversity Committee created this Racial Justice Resource Guide with a wide range of content on race, racism, allyship, mental health, inclusive leadership, and suggested activities to combat racism and racial inequality.

By no means exhaustive, the guide includes resources for those who are negatively impacted by racism, and those who want to practice anti-racism and support diverse individuals and communities. We welcome your questions about any of these resources, as well as suggestions for our next issue. Please email us at Winston Diversity Team.
