

RECOGNITIONS

National Law Journal Names Jeffrey Kessler 2020 Winning Litigator

SEPTEMBER 1, 2020

Winston & Strawn Co-Executive Chairman & Co-Chair, Antitrust/Competition & Sports Law Practices Jeffrey Kessler is one of only twenty-six attorneys recognized as 2020 NLJ Winning Litigators. This annual report highlights star litigators who scored significant victories on behalf of their clients in high-stakes matters and the attorney's track record over her/his career.

Jeffrey is recognized for his work with the athlete classes in Alston v. NCAA, the antitrust class action challenge against NCAA rules restricting conferences/schools from compensating athletes for the multibillion-dollar revenue streams they generate.

Read more of Jeffrey's profile, including trial tips that have been key to his successes, here.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Washington, DC

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Litigation/Trials

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Sports

Related Regions

North America

Latin America & Caribbean

Related Professionals

Jeffrey Kessler