

Criminal Antitrust Hot Topics Update from the DOJ Antitrust Division's Chicago Field Office

APRIL 30, 2021

On April 30, Winston & Strawn Antitrust Attorney Kevin Goldstein will moderate “Criminal Antitrust Hot Topics Update from the DOJ Antitrust Division's Chicago Field Office,” a virtual panel discussion sponsored by the Antitrust Law Committee of the Chicago Bar Association. Panelists Michael Loterstein and Kristina Srica Assistant Chiefs in the Chicago Office of the DOJ's Antitrust Division—will discuss a variety of the Division's recent criminal cases and initiatives. The conversation will highlight the work of both the Chicago Office and the Division's Criminal Program overall, including discussion of the Procurement Collusion Strike Force, labor markets, deferred prosecution agreements, and the recently enacted antitrust whistleblower legislation.

This event is open to CBA members only. Register here.
