MAY 30, 2022

Winston & Strawn Partners Bryce Cooper and Jeanifer Parsigian were named to Law360's Rising Stars of 2022, a list that recognizes "attorneys under 40 whose legal accomplishments belie their age."

Selected from more than 1,350 submissions, Bryce was recognized for his work in Product Liability, and Jeanifer for her work in Sports & Betting.

"I hope that's one of my strong suits, to be able to take something that's complicated and break it down and be able to teach someone who doesn't have that background," Bryce told Law360 when discussing his interest in product liability law and his work representing Monsanto Roundup and Abbott Laboratories. Bryce is one of five product liability attorneys honored as Rising Stars.

"It's been an incredible opportunity to deepen my knowledge of sports as an industry, while also continuing to hone my expertise in antitrust. Both areas will always have a lot of fascinating legal issues," Jeanifer said in her interview with Law360, where she discussed her work for the U.S. Women's National Soccer Team and the landmark antitrust Supreme Court victory favoring college athletes. Jeanifer is one of four sports and betting attorneys honored as Rising Stars.
