

Lucy Gray

Partner

Chicago
+1 312-558-5288

Lucy has over 15 years of experience both in private practice and in-house. She has lived and worked in Europe, Asia, Africa and the US and has developed a wide network of clients, particularly in the Middle East, where she was based between Dubai and Riyadh. Lucy focuses on building Winston's presence in the Middle East, particularly in the Gulf region.

Prior to joining the firm, Lucy was based in the Middle East where she acted as Senior Counsel for Motorola. She was the lead lawyer for the MEAPak region. Lucy trained and qualified at a leading law firm in London where she worked in the Competition and Commercial Group and was also Secretary of the firm's Sports and Media Group. Lucy then moved to the US and set up her own consulting company to assist US and Middle East companies in networking and forming relationships with each other. In her spare time Lucy assists the Legal Studies Department at Elmira College, NY as a Visiting Professor.

Activities

Lucy is a Visiting Professor in the Legal Studies Department at Elmira College, NY.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Lucy received her LLB in Law and German from the Universities of Bristol and Wuerzburg in 1997. She received her postgraduate diploma in law, with distinction, from The College of Law in 1998.

ADMISSIONS

- England & Wales