Winston Sponsors the 2024 AIMA Digital Assets Conference

MAY 2, 2024

Winston & Strawn was a proud sponsor of the 2024 AIMA Digital Assets Conference in New York City on May 2, 2024.

The Alternative Investment Management Association (AIMA) hosted its Third Annual Digital Assets Conference, bringing together more than 350 of the industry's top managers, investors, and experts.

Partners Beth Kramer and Kimberly Prior represented the firm, contributing to the conversations at the intersection of alternative investments and digital assets. Beth and Kimberly specialize in providing strategic counsel to investment managers and advisers, with a focus on fund formation and regulatory compliance within the digital assets space.

Winston extends its thanks to Michelle Noyes, Sharon D'Agostino, and the AIMA team for a day filled with thought-provoking discussions on the digital assets landscape within the alternative investment management industry.
