JULY 15, 2024

Winston & Strawn proudly sponsored The Real Deal's annual New York Golf Classic tournament on July 15, hosted at the Village Club of Sands Point. The event brought together clients, colleagues, and industry leaders for a day of networking and discussions on the latest market trends. New York real estate partner William Lang represented Winston at the event and was accompanied in his foursome by representatives from the Durst Organization, Varde Partners, and HUB International.

The Real Deal is a leading real estate news outlet with a readership of millions of professionals and investors daily, with a wide range of content, including news, market intelligence, custom research, proprietary rankings, deal analysis, profiles, trends, and more.
