

Kobi Kennedy Brinson and Danielle Williams Announced as Honorees by Corporate Counsel for Its 2024 Women, Influence & Power in Law Awards

AUGUST 7, 2024

Co-Chair of the Financial Services Industry Group and Chair of the Diversity and Inclusion Committee Kobi Kennedy Brinson and Charlotte Managing Partner Danielle Williams were selected as honorees by Corporate Counsel for its 2024 Women, Influence & Power in Law Awards. This annual award series honors trailblazers, advocates, and leaders who have demonstrated exceptional skill, dedication, and commitment to advancing equality.

Kobi was named as a Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Champion. Kobi merited this accolade as a result of her active role in fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion both within Winston and in the legal industry at large. Her work has made a significant, measurable impact and driven real and lasting change.

Danielle was selected as a Managing Partner of the Year. Danielle earned this title because of her exceptionally impactful work over the past year which stood out above her peers. In addition to her professional highlights, Danielle was also chosen because of her tireless efforts to broaden connections for others and showcase the great work of many in the firm, the Charlotte office, and the community.

Kobi and Danielle received their awards during a ceremony on September 24, 2024, in Chicago.
