

Winston & Strawn Attorneys Contribute to Global Legal Insights – Blockchain & Cryptocurrency Regulation 2025

OCTOBER 28, 2024

Winston & Strawn attorneys Will Turner, Rebecca Jack, Thania Charmani, and Sara Susnjar co-authored the Digital Asset Mergers and Acquisitions chapter of Global Legal Insights – Blockchain & Cryptocurrency Regulations 2025. The chapter provides an overview of key transactional considerations, laws, and regulations that should be considered in the context of M&A for buyers and sellers navigating digital asset acquisitions and explores these considerations through a focus on particular laws of the U.S., U.K., and European Union.

Published by Global Legal Group Ltd, Blockchain & Cryptocurrency Regulations 2025 covers key topics within the blockchain and cryptocurrency regulatory sphere, including government attitudes, virtual currency regulation, taxation, anti-money laundering requirements, ownership and licensing requirements, border restrictions, estate planning, and more across 30 jurisdictions.
