

Global Competition Review's Americas Antitrust Review 2025

OCTOBER 30, 2024

Antitrust/Competition Practice Co-Chair Jim Herbison, along with associates Zachary Alexander and Evan Gilbert, recently contributed to Global Competition Review's Americas Antitrust Review. Their article focuses on the key Sherman Act violation, class certification, and FTC actions shaping the antitrust litigation landscape in the Seventh Circuit. It explores recent cases that have tested legal boundaries around monopolization, collusion, and competition and offers insights into how courts in the Seventh Circuit are shaping the enforcement landscape across industries.

See the full article.

This article was first published on Global Competition Review in September 2024; for further in-depth analysis, please visit the GCR Americas Antitrust Review.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Topics

Antitrust Litigation

FTC

Class Actions

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Related Professionals

Jim Herbison

Zachary L. Alexander

Evan S. Gilbert