

Jordan Berry

She/Her/Hers
Associate

Washington, DC
+1 202-282-5039

Jordan is a litigation associate who focuses her practice on advising clients in various litigation matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Jordan was a legal intern for the Division of Enforcement in the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Jordan is a former communications intern at the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation. She is also a former intern for the Office of the Majority Leader in the U.S. House of Representatives and a former senior fellow for Hoyer for Congress.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Jordan earned her J.D. from Duke University School of Law in 2024, where she was External Vice President of the Black Law Students Association, Chair of the Womxn of Color Collective, and a volunteer for Duke Law's Innocence Project. Jordan received her B.A. in Public Policy from the University of Maryland in 2021, where she was a resident board member of the University Student Judiciary, an ethics board member of the Kappa Omega Alpha Public Policy Fraternity, and became a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

ADMISSIONS

- District of Columbia

Related Insights & News

CLIENT ALERT

Executive Order Calls for the Second Withdrawal of the United States from the World Health Organization
FEBRUARY 10, 2025

Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Litigation/Trials