Winston & Strawn Continues Expansion in Miami with the Addition of Juan M. Delgado

JANUARY 7, 2025

Miami – January 7, 2025 – Winston & Strawn announced today the addition of Juan M. Delgado as a partner in the firm’s growing Miami office. He joins the Transactions Department, where he will focus his practice on advising multinational clients on cross-border transactions throughout Latin America and the United States.

Juan has extensive experience in domestic and international corporate representations, including mergers and acquisitions, private securities offerings, bank financings, and the regular representation of private equity sponsors in venture and growth equity investments. His diverse cross-border practice includes clients with operations in Chile, Puerto Rico, the Caribbean, Costa Rica, Honduras, Brazil, Mexico, Colombia, and other countries in Latin America. He serves global clients in a wide range of industries including telecommunications, banking, manufacturing, retail, and automotive. Juan has also advised various creditors in connection with complex cross-border restructurings.

“I’m thrilled to join Winston & Strawn,” said Juan. “I look forward to leveraging the firm’s collaborative platform for my U.S. and global clients and working alongside my talented colleagues at Winston to meet the growing demand for sophisticated legal services in Miami, Mexico, Brazil, and beyond.”

Juan was honored by Latino Leaders Magazine as one its 2024 “Top Latino Lawyers,” ranked in The Legal 500 Latin America 2024 guide, and named to the “Latin America’s Top 100 Lawyers” by Latinvex in 2022.

“We are delighted to welcome Juan to Winston & Strawn,” said Enrique J. Martin, managing partner of Winston’s Miami office. “As Miami maintains its ranking as a top growth city in the U.S., we, too, are pleased to keep pace by continuing to expand our Miami office and welcome Juan, a top dealmaker and Latin American strategist known for his dedication to superior client service.”

“Juan’s experience in private equity and venture capital, coupled with his strong client relationships, further strengthens our ability to handle cross-border transactions in key U.S. and global markets,” said Timothy Kincaid and Brad Vaiana, co-chairs of the firm’s Transactions Department. “Without a doubt, Miami continues to be a thriving business destination and a hub for international transactions, and we remain committed to our firm’s aggressive growth plans for the region.”
