

Alexanne Dericbourg

Associate

Paris

+33 1 53 64 82 66

Alexanne focuses her practice on a wide range of corporate transactions, with a particular emphasis on mergers and acquisitions and capital market transactions.

Alexanne is an associate in the Corporate practice department of the Paris office. She advises international and domestic clients on a broad range of corporate transactions.

She is fluent in French and English.

Key Matters

Alexanne focuses her practice on corporate transactions with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions and capital markets. She is an associate in the Corporate practice group of the Paris office.

She advises on M&A transactions involving listed companies (takeover bids, delisting, share exchanges and mergers) and on capital market transactions (IPOs, private placements, and complex equity-linked securities issuances).

Credentials

EDUCATION

Alexanne holds a Master of Business Administration from Laval University (2020) and a Master's degree in International Business Law from Rennes University (2021).

ADMISSIONS

- Paris, France

Capabilities

Capital Markets

Corporate Governance

Mergers & Acquisitions