

Partners Imad Khan and Keerthika Subramanian Discuss Hot Topics in International Arbitration and Strategic Transactions in India as Part of Practising Law Institute Program

MAY 9, 2025, 3:00 PM ET/2:00 PM CT

Join Winston & Strawn partners M. Imad Khan and Keerthika M. Subramanian for the upcoming online program “Hot Topics in International Arbitration and Strategic Transactions: Recent Developments and Key Trends in India” hosted by the Practising Law Institute.

As the world’s fifth-largest economy, India continues to be a global hotspot for arbitration and strategic transactions, including joint ventures and capital markets activity. Imad and Keerthika will discuss recent developments and salient trends in India from both an international arbitration perspective as well as from a strategic transactions perspective.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore key drivers of arbitration and strategic transaction activity in India.
- Assess the long-term viability of India as a global leader in these fields, including the impact of U.S. foreign policy.
- Gain insights into best practices for companies navigating these opportunities.

Who Should Attend: In-house counsel, outside attorneys, and strategic advisors.

Don’t miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding of India’s evolving legal and business landscape!
