

Winston & Strawn and the Environmental Law Institute Host Plastics and Packaging Webinar

FEBRUARY 12, 2025

Winston associates Madalyn Brown Feiger and Sam Falcon Trimbach will join the Environmental Law Institute (ELI) panel webinar on the Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) policy and examine the state of plastic and packaging laws.

With EPR laws on the rise and compliance dates approaching, join the ELI, Winston & Strawn, and other expert panelists to explore:

- The EPR policy approach and the use of PROs, generally
- State EPR laws that are currently enacted relating to plastics and packaging, including a closer review of California's EPR law (commonly referred to as "SB 54")
- How companies can evaluate their regulatory responsibilities and, where subject, comply with currently effective and forthcoming EPR laws, including business risks to consider along the way
