

RECOGNITIONS

Partner Keerthika Subramanian Selected to Join Prestigious Bretton Woods Committee

FEBRUARY 25, 2025

Partner Keerthika Subramanian was selected to join the Bretton Woods Committee (BWC), the preeminent non-profit organization dedicated to effective global economic and financial cooperation. The BWC extends this invitation to select individuals who are recognized for their influence in the global financial community.

As a member of the Bretton Woods Committee, Keerthika will join a distinguished network of individuals and organizations that include CEOs, former lawmakers, cabinet officials, and thought leaders across business, finance, academia, government, and nonprofit sectors. The committee is a driving force in advocating for strong, effective multilateral institutions that serve the global economy.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Topics

Finance

Capital Markets

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

Related Professionals

Keerthika M. Subramanian