

Jordan Saddoris

Associate

Houston
+1 713-324-2603

Jordan is an associate in the Houston office. He focuses his practice on corporate finance and securities law, including public company advisory, SEC reporting, securities offerings, corporate finance transactions and a wide range of general corporate matters.

Jordan represents public and private companies in various industries on corporate and securities law matters, including SEC reporting compliance and investor relations matters, as well as in a variety of transactions, including traditional equity and debt offerings, at-the-market (ATM) offerings, convertible debt offerings, initial public offerings (IPOs), and de-SPAC transactions. He has experience advising publicly-traded companies regarding Exchange Act reporting and disclosure, proxy solicitation, Section 16 reporting and relevant Nasdaq and NYSE listing requirements. He has assisted in over $4 billion of debt and equity offering transactions.

Jordan's experience covers a wide variety of industries, including telecommunications, REITs, consumer goods, fuel services, mortgage finance, cannabis, restaurants, sports betting & media, social media, real estate & homebuilding.

Activities

- Florida Bar Business Law Section
 - CCA Florida
-

Credentials

EDUCATION

Jordan received his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law in 2020. He received his B.A. in International Business Management & Political Science from Central College in 2017.

ADMISSIONS

- Florida

Related Insights & News

- Author, “Lessons for Today by the Deregulation of Yesteryear: Analyzing Modern Capital Market Deregulation with Historical Examples,” 29 U. MIA Bus. L. Rev. 167, 2021

Capabilities

Capital Markets	Public Companies	Corporate Governance	Transactions
Executive Compensation Plans & Agreements		Mergers & Acquisitions	REITs