APRIL 3, 2025

Winston Paris advised David Vincent, CEO and Co-Founder of smartTrade Technologies — a leading global provider of multi-asset electronic trading and payment solutions — as well as a group of private investors, in connection with the entry of TA Associates, a premier global private equity firm, into the company's capital.

As part of this strategic transaction, David Vincent and several private investors will reinvest alongside TA Associates, marking a new chapter in the company's growth.

Headquartered in Aix-en-Provence with a presence across eight major global financial centers, smartTrade offers secure, high-performance, and innovative SaaS solutions. TA's investment will support the group's continued international expansion, product innovation, and integration of advanced technologies such as artificial intelligence.
