

Winston & Strawn Partners Named BTI “Client Service All-Stars”

FEBRUARY 21, 2013

Winston & Strawn partners Stephen D'Amore has been named “Client Service All-Stars” in an annual report published by The BTI Consulting Group. In addition, Winston & Strawn has earned a spot among the top 30 firms in each of the 12 years the report has been published. The BTI Client Service All-Stars are chosen solely based on feedback from corporate counsel. Criteria for a high level of client service included client focus, exceptional understanding of the client’s business, outsized value, legal skills and outstanding results.

Steve D'Amore is a litigator in the firm’s Chicago office who concentrates his practice on complex commercial disputes. Mr. D'Amore also provides litigation advice and counseling to corporate clients on commercial transactions.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

New York

Related Topics

BTI Client Service

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

Securities, M&A & Corporate Governance Litigation

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Transactions

Capital Markets

Related Professionals

Steve D'Amore